LENTEN FAITH SHARING
(VELTRI HALL KITCHEN)

MONDAY 10:30 AM

TUESDAY 7:30 PM

We will be praying and discussing the Scripture
Readings for the FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Preview of readings: Temptation has been part of the world from the beginning. In the story of creation, humanity's first home is in the garden in Eden, with the forbidden tree in its center. We hear Adam and Eve succumb to the serpent's wiles in this garden of plenty. In the Gospel we see the opposite, a barren desert where Jesus uses God's Word to resist the temptation of the devil. Paul tells us that Adam and Eve's disobedience brought death into the world, but Jesus' obedience brought life. We reflect on how righteousness of truth can defeat the temptation of lies and begin, in this Lenten Season our journey of conversion.

ON LINE GIVING

Gathered in the Holy Spirit we give thanks and praise to our God of boundless love. The command we hear today is one of the most difficult to keep, love your enemy. We are called to live a life of holiness patterned after the holiness of God. “Be holy, for I, the Lord, your God, am holy”. We must refrain from nursing hatred in our hearts, we must rebuke wrongdoers or we will share their guilt; we must not entertain vengeance and we must love others as we love ourselves. These very demanding directives give us a glimpse into the holiness of God. Furthermore, they are all communal in nature. In other words, our likeness to God is determined by the way we relate to others. Jesus tells us: “If you want to be like God, then love your enemies”. Don’t expect repayment of loans. Give to every beggar. In showing selfless compassion to others, we are living according to our true nature, created in the image and likeness of God. As today’s Scriptures are proclaimed we pray that these difficult words will challenge us to re-think our actions as we listen closely for what God wants us to become and we are reminded this Sunday, especially as we have our Alleluia procession at the 11:00 Mass, that we sing the Alleluia as an acclamation of joy to greet our Lord as he speaks to us in the Gospel for the last time. On Wednesday Lent begins and we will take our annual opportunity to focus on our sinfulness, our need for forgiveness and the sacrificial suffering and death of Jesus. May the joy of our faith in the risen Lord sustain us during this coming penitential season.

REFLECTION FOR ASH WEDNESDAY

Now is the acceptable time to return to the Lord God with our whole heart. Now is the day of our salvation, the day on which our merciful and gracious Lord summons us to repentance. As we pray together and listen to the Scriptures we will hear God’s invitation to reform our lives. We will mark our foreheads with the sign of our salvation, the sign of the cross, using ashes made from last Palm Sunday’s branches as a reminder to turn away from sin and believe in the Gospel. As we begin our Lenten journey we are mindful of our need to implore God’s mercy, seeking clean hearts and steadfast spirits. As Psalm 51 tells us: “Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned”. And the Gospel of Matthew sets the tone as it gives us the disciplines for Lent: prayer, fasting and almsgiving. Attentive to the call of the Lord, we humbly open our hearts, receptive to the work God has in store for us during this Holy Season.

“REPENT AND BELIEVE IN THE GOSPEL”

REGULATIONS FOR LENT

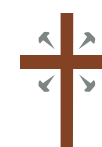

Abstinence: All of the faithful who have reached the age of 14 years are required to Abstain totally from eating meat on Ash Wednesday, all of the Fridays of Lent and Good Friday.

Fasting: All of the faithful who are between the ages of 18 and 59 inclusive are required to Fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. This practice involves limiting oneself to a single full meal and avoiding food between meals. Light sustenance may also be taken on two other occasions during the day. The Church also requests that pastors and parents see to it that young persons, who are not bound to follow the above requirements, are educated in an authentic sense of penance.

Easter Duty: After they have been initiated into the Most Holy Eucharist, all the faithful are bound by the obligation to receive Holy Communion at least once a year. This precept must be fulfilled during the Easter season. By special indult in the Dioceses in the United States, the time period for fulfilling this obligation has been extended to include the period from Ash Wednesday (February 22nd) to Pentecost Sunday (May 28th).

THE FOLLOWING SHOULD ALSO BE NOTED:

By Divine Law, all the faithful are required to do penance. In view of this, the obligation to observe, as a whole or "substantially" the penitential days specified by the Church, is a serious one. All other Fridays of the year remain as days of penance in prayerful remembrance of the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ. While abstinence, in a true spirit of penance, is commended, the Bishops of the U.S. have indicated that each individual may substitute for that tradition some other practice of voluntary self-denial or personal penance. This may involve acts of prayer or charity.

"Vuelve al Señor tu Dios": esta palabra da sin duda el sentido de esta celebración de la Ceniza que abre el tiempo de Cuaresma. Se trata, en efecto, de volver al Señor, nuestro Dios.

Esta invitación se dirige a nosotros, que nos planteamos todas estas preguntas y buscamos dar sentido a nuestra vida. Es una invitación a volver a este Dios que nos busca, que espera en nosotros, que nos ama. Es una invitación a volver el corazón a Aquel que es la fuente de toda vida y la fuente de todo amor.

En el fondo, este tiempo de Cuaresma es un tiempo en el que la Iglesia nos invita a volver a poner a Dios en el centro de nuestras vidas, a devolverle el lugar que debería ser suyo, a mirar hacia Aquel que da un nuevo horizonte a nuestras vidas, que las orienta de nuevo hacia lo que es bello, hacia lo que es grande, hacia lo que es verdadero.

Comprendemos entonces que el tiempo de Cuaresma no es ante todo un tiempo para ser más perfectos, para esforzarnos y demostrar que somos capaces, que somos fuertes. El objetivo de nuestra vida no es alcanzar la perfección moral, porque correríamos el peligro de volvernos orgullosos. El objetivo de nuestra vida es Dios: conocerle, amarle y servirle. Y la Iglesia propone para ello un camino cuaresmal, que se resume en estas tres palabras del Evangelio: ayuno, oración y limosna.

El ayuno, en su sentido más profundo, es una llamada a dejar espacio a Dios en nuestra vida cotidiana. No se trata de privarnos por privarnos. Se trata de renunciar a todas aquellas cosas que no son esenciales para la vida, para recordarnos a nosotros mismos que sólo Dios puede llenar verdaderamente nuestras vidas. Que sólo Él puede responder a nuestra búsqueda de felicidad, a nuestra hambre y sed de vida.

La oración tampoco es principalmente una hazaña que se consigue recitando una sucesión de oraciones. Orar es tomarse este tiempo de intimidad con Dios que es Padre. Orar es escuchar a Dios que me habla, saborear su ternura y su amor por mí, y luego entrar en diálogo con Él, como un amigo habla a su amigo. Mi Padre está allí, en secreto. Él me llama, Él me espera y eso es suficiente.

La limosna es la forma más hermosa de servir a Dios. Sirviendo a nuestros hermanos y hermanas, servimos a Dios mismo. "Lo que hicisteis a uno de estos pequeños que son mis hermanos, a mí me lo hicisteis", nos dice el Señor Jesús. Sirviendo a los más débiles, abriendo nuestros corazones y nuestras manos a los más necesitados, tanto a los que están cerca como a los que están lejos, nos acercamos aún más a Dios.

Sí, lo que falta en nuestro mundo es Dios. Dios que nos revela la grandeza de la vida y a qué está llamada y cómo puede realizarse verdaderamente. Pero este tiempo cuaresmal quiere invitarnos y ayudarnos en comunidad a volver el corazón hacia este Dios Padre, lleno de bondad, Padre benévolo que sostiene, ayuda, acoge, perdona, salva, con una fidelidad que supera inmensamente la de los hombres.

Amigos míos, entremos, pues, con alegría en este tiempo que nos ofrece la Iglesia para renacer de nuestras cenizas a la verdadera vida, la que nunca termina.
