Rejoice at EASTER

Our Easter refrain begins today, “This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad! Christ is risen, truly risen and we are witnesses to God’s glorious deeds. We celebrate the Lord’s Resurrection, as the Body of Christ, in union with our brothers and sisters throughout the world. We begin our celebration of Easter with the Holy Vigil where we gather around the fire to light our Paschal Candle, we bless the waters of Baptism, we initiate two new members into the Church, we renew our Baptismal Promises and share the Banquet of new life. The darkness of the night gives way to the dawn of rejoicing as we go to the tomb with Mary of Magdala and Peter and John to see the empty tomb and the burial cloths there. With them we see and believe for we understand the Scriptures that Jesus had to rise from the dead. The power of this holy day leads us to witness to the Resurrection for the life of the world. The readings celebrate the Lord’s Resurrection. Peter and Paul bring the good news to the Gentiles, Peter giving eyewitness testimony of his time with Jesus before and after his death and resurrection, while Paul points out that the resurrection transforms our lives. In the Gospel, neither angels nor the Risen Lord appear to the first visitors to the tomb to testify to the Resurrection, but the disciple Jesus lives believes at once. May God’s Word guide us to belief as well.

Easter, which celebrates Jesus Christ's resurrection from the dead, is our most important holyday. It is a moveable feast because it doesn't fall on a set date every year, as most holidays do. The Roman Catholic Church, following the Gregorian Calendar, celebrates Easter on the first Sunday, following the full moon after the vernal equinox on March 21st. Therefore, Easter is observed anywhere between March 22nd and April 25th every year. Orthodox Christians use the Julian calendar to calculate when Easter will occur and typically celebrate the holyday a week or two after ours. The exact origins of this religious feast day's name are unknown. Some sources claim the word Easter is derived from Eostre, a Teutonic goddess of spring and fertility. Other accounts trace Easter to the Latin term hebdomada alba, or white week, an ancient reference to Easter week and the white clothing donned by people who were baptized during that time. Through a translation error, the term later appeared as esostarum in Old High German, which eventually became Easter in English. In Italian, Easter is known as Pasqua; in Spanish, Pascua; in French, Paques. These words are derived from the Greek and Latin Pascha or Pasch, for Passover. Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection occurred after he went to Jerusalem to celebrate Passover (or Pesach in Hebrew), the Jewish festival commemorating the Israelites' exodus from slavery in Egypt. Pascha eventually came to mean Easter.

Easter is really an entire season of the Church Year. We have just finished Lent, the 40-day period leading up to Easter Sunday, which has been a time of reflection and penance and represented the 40 days that Jesus spent alone in the wilderness before starting his ministry, a time in which Jesus survived various temptations by the devil. The week preceding Easter is Holy Week and includes the Triduum (the three days) Holy Thursday, which commemorates Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples; Good Friday, which honors the day of his crucifixion and Holy Saturday, which focuses on the transition between the crucifixion and resurrection. The week of Easter is called the Octave of Easter which begins the Great 50 Days of the Easter Season. The Octave ends with Divine Mercy Sunday. Included in the Easter Season is the celebration of Jesus' Ascension into Heaven (40 days) and the conclusion of Easter on the 50th day, Pentecost.

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY:

(Next weekend)

In 2000 our Holy Father, Saint Pope John Paul II, proclaimed to the world, that "from now on throughout the Church this Sunday will be called Divine Mercy Sunday".

The occasion was the Mass for the canonization of Sister Faustina Kowalska, known as the "Apostle of Divine Mercy". Her deep interior faith revealed to her and ultimately the world, the limitless Mercy of Jesus

Easter Love

On Easter we celebrate love,
love coming down from heaven,
love blanketing the earth
in a transforming embrace;
unique and infinite love,
giving more than we can imagine
for us, to cleanse our sin,
a perfect sacrifice, Lamb of God,
the walking, talking Word.
He is teacher, role model, friend,
this God in human form,
dying, then rising from the dead,
proving all who believe
will also rise
to have eternal life, with Him,
Lord of all.

MENSAJE DE PASCUA 2023

¿Buscas a Jesús de Nazaret, el Crucificado? Ha resucitado: no está aquí. Este es el lugar donde fue puesto. Ahora ve y dile a sus discípulos y a Pedro: "Va delante de ti a Galilea. Allí lo verás, tal como te dijo." (Marcos 16, 6-7)

Tomo tres mensajes clave de este pasaje del Evangelio de Marcos, para desearles un feliz Pascua. En primer lugar, justo cuando las mujeres pensaban que entraban en el mundo de la muerte, ya que iban a embalsamar el cuerpo de Jesús en el sepulcro, se les comunica una gran noticia: ¡Jesús ha resucitado! ¡Qué sorpresa! Para Dios, nada es imposible. En medio de nuestra angustia, de nuestro sufrimiento, de nuestra oscuridad, Cristo resucitado se nos revela también hoy.

Sin haber tenido la oportunidad de estudiar el caso, de comprobar los hechos, de ver por sí mismos que Jesús había resucitado realmente, son enviados inmediatamente como mensajeros de la buena noticia. Este envío en misión debe desafiarnos a su vez. Bajo el aliento del Espíritu, no dudemos en ser portadores de la alegría del Evangelio. No esperemos a tener todas las respuestas a nuestras preguntas antes de dar testimonio de nuestra fe.

El tercer mensaje clave es más sutil pero conlleva una gran esperanza. "Va delante de ti a Galilea. Galilea es el lugar donde viven los discípulos, es su "casa". La buena noticia de la resurrección les será anunciada en su propio terreno. Jesús va delante de ellos y les sale al encuentro en su entorno vital y laboral, en todos los acontecimientos de su vida cotidiana. Jesús también nos encuentra a todos en nuestra propia "Galilea", donde estamos físicamente, pero también espiritualmente. Él no espera a que seamos cristianos perfectos para entrar en relación con nosotros. Él va delante de nosotros en cada momento, aquí y ahora, y camina con nosotros, como lo hizo con los discípulos en el camino de Emaús. ¿Seremos capaces de reconocerlo y ser testigos de su presencia transformadora?

¡Feliz Pascua!
