QUEENSHIP OF MARY It was in 1954, a few years after the proclamation of the dogma of the Assumption (1950) and amidst the fervor of the coronation of Our Lady of Fatima, that Pope Pius XII finally instituted this liturgical feast: "The solemnity of the Assumption is joyfully prolonged through the celebration of the feast of the Queenship of Mary which takes place eight days later and in which we contemplate the one who, seated next to the King of the centuries, shines as queen and intercedes as mother", specified the Pope who also published the encyclical Ad Coeli Reginam on the Queenship of Mary. Pius XII added, "Mary became the first of those who, serving Christ also in others, with humility and patience lead their brothers and sisters to that King whom to serve is to reign."

PRAYER: Grant, we beg of you, O Lord, that we who celebrate the feast day of the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Queen, may merit, under her loving protection, to attain peace on this earth and glory in heaven. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

TWENTIETH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading Proverbs 9:1-6

Wisdom has set a feast before us.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 34:2-3,4-5,6-7

A prayer of praise to God for his goodness

Second Reading Ephesians 5:15-20

Filled with the Spirit, Christians strive to follow the will of the Lord.

Gospel Reading John 6:51-58

Jesus teaches that whoever eats his flesh and drinks his blood will live forever.

“Be filled with the Spirit”, St. Paul tells us today, “addressing one another in psalms, hymns and spiritual songs”. Our liturgy sings of the feast of God’s wisdom, inviting us to “taste and see the goodness of the Lord” and to “be radiant with joy”. As we are “called to the Supper of the Lamb”, the sacrifice of Jesus’ Body and Blood, let us open our ears to God’s Word and lift up our hearts in God’s praise!

Jesus is the “Bread of Life”. This is the core of his teaching and of our Catholic faith. It is not enough simply to come to Jesus or even to believe in Jesus, now he asks for a more intimate commitment: “Unless you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you do not have life in you”. The Book of Proverbs foreshadows Jesus’ teaching as God’s wisdom prepares a feast. St. Paul challenges us to be a Eucharistic people, “giving thanks always for everything”, for the word Eucharist means thanksgiving.

John 6:66-68
From this time many of his disciples turned back and no longer followed him. You do not want to leave too, do you?" Jesus asked the Twelve. Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life."

TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

First Reading Joshua 24:1-2a,15-17,18b

Joshua and the people declare that they will serve the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 34:2-3,16-17,18-19,20-21

The Lord hears the cries of the just.

Second Reading Ephesians 5:21-32 (shorter form 5:2a,25-32)

Husbands and wives should love one another as Christ loves the Church.

Gospel Reading John 6:60-69

Simon Peter confesses his faith that Jesus alone has the words of the eternal life.

Like our ancestors in faith, we gather before the Lord our God, who delivers us from the slavery of sin, that we might “taste and see the goodness of the Lord”. As members of Christ’s body, the Church, we proclaim with Peter and the Apostles that we have come to believe and are convinced that Jesus is God’s Holy One, who has the words of eternal life. In the radiant joy of this Lord’s Day, we hear the Word of God and celebrate Jesus’ gift of the Eucharist.

In the first reading Joshua, whose name is another form of “Jesus”, confronts Israel with the choice of serving or deserting God. In the Gospel, Jesus confronts his disciples with the choice of staying with him or leaving him, as many others have already done. St. Paul teaches that Jesus loves his church as a husband loves his bride. We are the Church of Jesus’ disciples: let us open our hearts in prayer this day to hear Jesus asking us personally to make our choice. Then as we listen to the response of Peter let us make it our own: “Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.”

(PATRONESS OF WAYWARD CHILDREN)
FOR OUR FAMILIES

Lord our God, ever merciful to all who hope in you, you adorned your servant Monica with the priceless gift of reconciling her husband and children to you; you listened to her fervent and continuous prayers calling Saint Augustine from the ways of error to serve you in holiness, making of him a sign in the world of the power of the grace of Christ and of the intercession of the saints on our behalf; renew, O Lord, in your Church and in our hearts the spirit you gave to Saint Augustine and Saint Monica; grant that in our thirst for true wisdom we and our loved ones may never cease to search for you, and may our hearts rest united in you, the living fountain of unending love. Through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

PASSION OF ST. JOHN THE BAPTIST

John the Baptist was an incredible preacher. He was fearless and strong in his faith. Even those who lived a sinful life respected him and were intrigued by what he had to say. Among the people whom John reproached was King Herod Antipas. Herod Antipas was the son of Herod the Great—a vicious ruler who had tried to have Jesus killed as an infant. Herod Antipas divorced his own wife and married the wife of his brother, who was still alive. John rebuked this sinful behavior to Herod's face. Although Herod may have been embarrassed or upset to hear his lifestyle so openly reproved, he enjoyed listening to John. On the other hand, Herodias, Herod's wife, hated the prophet for exposing her sinfulness. She wanted him killed and waited for a chance to make it happen. One night, on his birthday, Herod held a banquet. He celebrated with over-indulgence and became quite drunk. At the party, Herodias' daughter danced for the crowd. Herod was extremely pleased, and in his stupor, promised the young girl anything she asked. Prompted by her mother, she asked for the head of John the Baptist on a plate. Herod certainly did not expect this request and did not want to have John killed. Unfortunately, Herod was a coward. He cared more about what others thought of him and what they would say if he denied the girl's request. He had John killed and his head was presented to the girl on a platter. (Cf. Matthew 14:6-12).

PRAYER: O God, who willed that Saint John the Baptist should go ahead of your Son both in his birth and in his death, grant that, as he died a Martyr for truth and justice, we, too, may fight hard for the confession of what you teach. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen
